

Treacher Collins Treatment Timeline

This timeline is only a guideline. Every child has different needs. Surgeries/Treatments will depend upon individual growth patterns, health status, and needs.

Birth - 6 months	6 - 12 months	1 - 5 years	5 - 8 years	8 - 10 years	10 - 14 years	14 - 21 years
Pediatrician / Primary Care Provider (PCP): Well Child Checks and Immunizations, Monitoring of Weight Gain and Development Referral to Developmental Pediatrician as needed
Craniofacial Team Evaluation w/yearly follow-up
Plastic Surgeon Airway management: possible TLA vs DO	Airway management	Airway management	Bonegrafting vs. DO of mandible; Ear reconstruction	Midface surgery: bonegrafting, soft tissue surgery		Orthognathic surgery and nasal surgery
Ear, Nose, Throat(ENT) Airway management: possible tracheostomy	Airway management	Airway management	BAJA hearing aids vs. ear canal reconstruction
Audiology Evaluation		Yearly audiology exam
Neurosurgeon
Pediatric Dental		1yr: first dental visit and then active dental care
Orthodontics			5yrs: X-rays, Palatal Expansion	Active Orthodontics
Oral Surgeon			Dental Extractions	Dental Extractions		Orthognathic surgery, extraction of wisdom teeth
Ophthalmology		Yearly eye exam
Oculoplastics Evaluation: possible lower lid surgery
Genetics Evaluation		Yearly follow up
Speech/Language: Referral for feeding evaluation if needed	Ongoing education for speech & language development	Full speech/language evaluation	Nasoendoscopy if needed	Continue to monitor speech and resonance
Nutrition Evaluation and follow-up
Social Services: Referral to Craniofacial Foundation of Arizona and community resources. Evaluation for early intervention. Transition to adult services
Psychology Services/Ethics Consultation/Educational Consultany

Immunizations-Shots to protect children from getting certain illnesses

TLA-(Tongue lip adhesion), suturing the tongue to the inside of the lower lip to help w/ breathing

DO-Distracted osteogenesis, a surgical procedure using metal devices to gradually lengthen bone.

Bone grafting-A procedure that changes bone by using a segment of bone from a different area (usually a rib).

Orthognathic surgery-Jaw surgery

Tracheostomy-A procedure that allows a child to breathe through a tube in the neck

BAHA (bone anchored hearing aid)-A hearing aid that is attached to the skull

Audiology-Hearing

Palatal expansion-Widening the upper jaw w/ a retainer.

Oculoplastics-a special eye surgeon

Orthognathic surgery-Jaw surgery

Nasoendoscopy-Looking at the palate w/ a tiny camera inserted into the nose